62ième Congrès Annuel
27-29 Mai, 1990

Program Programme

UVIC
UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA
Victoria, British Columbia

As this program was going to press, we learned of the death of Donald Smiley. Through his research and teaching, Don was an inspiration to the Canadian political science community, including my generation at UBC. We shall miss his scholarship, his wit, and his wisdom.

62ND ANNUAL MEETING
62IEME CONGRES ANNUEL

UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA
MAY 27, 28, 29 MAI

Registration

Registration for both the Learned Societies and the CPSA will take place at the University Centre.

Those attending the meetings must register first at the Learned Societies desk and then proceed to the Association's desk in the University Centre. Our desk will be open from 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 26 and during normal conference hours. Paper-givers who arrive on May 26 should leave their papers in C-109. Those who arrive on May 27 and after should leave their papers in the Paper Room, C118.

CPSA Meetings

Unless otherwise noted, all CPSA meetings will take place in the Clearihue Building, in C or D wing. Professor Richard Powers, of the University of Victoria Political Science Department, has taken care of the local arrangements and, with his student assistants, is ready to help in case of need.

Sessions at Royal Roads, Barbecue

Transportation to and from the sessions and barbecue will be provided. The bus will leave from in front of the University Centre on the hour.

Inscription

L'inscription aux Sociétés savantes et à l'ACSP aura lieu au Centre Universitaire (University Centre).

Il faudra donc aller au bureau des Sociétés savantes puis au bureau de l'ACSP au University Centre. Notre bureau ouvrira samedi, le 26 mai, à 16 h et restera ouvert durant les heures normales du congrès. Les participants qui arrivent le 26 mai doivent déposer les copies de leur communications à la salle C-109. Après le 26 il faudra déposer les copies à la salle des communications, C118.

Reunions de l'ACSP

Sauf sur avis contraire, toutes les réunions du congrès de l'ACSP auront lieu au Clearihue Building, sections C et D. Le professeur Richard Powers, du Département de science politique de l'Université de Victoria, est le responsable de l'organisation des lieux. Avec ses assistant (e) s étudiant (e) s il saura vous aider en cas de besoin.

Reunions à Royal Roads, Barbecue

Le voyage aller-retour à Royal Roads est assuré par un autobus du Collège militaire. Le bus partira à l'heure, du Centre Universitaire.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to acknowledge the generous assistance of the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada in providing funds for the Travel Grants Program and in supporting the various activities of the Canadian Political Science Association.

We gratefully acknowledge the hospitality of the University of Victoria and the host department. Special thanks are due to the Local Arrangements Representative, Richard Powers.

As Program Chair, I am particularly grateful to the members of my Program Committee, to the staff at the secretariat of the CPSA and to Carol Knight and her staff in Continuing Studies at Simon Fraser for their assistance in typesetting and printing the program.

REMERCIEMENTS

Nous tenous à remercier le Conseil de recherche en sciences humaines du Canada pour son généreux appui financier au programme de Bourses de voyage dans la cadre du congrès annuel et aux autres activités de l'Association canadienne de science politique.

Nous remercions l'Université de Victoria et son département de science politique pour leur hospitalité. Nous remercions spécialement Richard Powers, responsable des arrangements locaux.

Comme Présidente du programme, je voudrais exprimer ma reconnaissance personnelle aux membres du Comité du Programme, au personnel du bureau de l'ACSP, et à Carol Knight et son équipe de l'Education Permanente de Simon Fraser pour leur aide dans la production et traitement de texte du programme.

We would like to express our gratitude to Nelson Canada, Publishers, for their donation of $500 to the CPSA Trust Fund.

Nous exprimons nos remerciements à la Maison d'Edition, Nelson Canada, pour un don de $500 au Fonds de l'ACSP.

NEW BOOKS

Now in paperback

CANADA 1900-1945

Robert Bothwell, Ian Drummond, and John English

'The research is good, the writing is excellent, the judgements are sound. Canada 1900-1945 is a first-rate survey. It deserves a broad and appreciative readership.'
Donald Swainson, Kingston Whig-Standard

'An elegant synthesis of a great deal of work on Canadian history.'
Garth Stevenson, Canadian Journal of Political Science

Paper $18.95

PATRONS, CLIENTS, BROKERS

ONTARIO SOCIETY AND POLITICS 1791-1892

S. J. R. Noel

Noel explores the relationships that centred around land — who controlled it, who needed it, who got access to it — and how these developed along patron / client lines. He shows how these relationships eventually became the basis of provincial party politics in post-Confederation Ontario.
Cloth $45.00, paper $18.95

CHANGING THE GUARD

CANADA'S DEFENCE IN TRANSITION

Peter Langille

A trap is closing around Canada, says Langille in this penetrating analysis of Canadian post-war defence policy. The trap has been set not by enemy nations but by powerful forces within Canada that are pushing it toward rearmament.
Cloth $29.95

The State and Economic Life

NOVA SCOTIA, OTTAWA, AND THE POLITICS OF REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT

James Bickerton

Bickerton focuses on the historical periphery-centre relationship between Nova Scotia and Ottawa. He considers the role of political, ideological, and organizational factors in blocking the development of any concerted regional policy at the centre, to the detriment of the periphery.
Cloth $50.00, paper $24.95

THE SPIRIT OF THE LAWS

REPUBLICANISM AND THE UNFINISHED PROJECT OF MODERNITY

Andrew W. Fraser

In this thoughtful and provocative essay, Fraser seeks to modernize the ancient republican traditions of constitutional freedom. He contends that we should replace the monarchical principle of sovereignty from above with a federal distribution of civic authority anchored in the corporate institutions of modern civil society.
Cloth $70.00

JIMMY GARDINER

RELENTLESS LIBERAL

Norman Ward and David E. Smith

Gardiner had an exceptionally long political career, from 1914 to 1935 in Saskatchewan, including a term as premier, and from 1935 to 1958 in Ottawa, where he held a number of cabinet posts. Drawing heavily on Gardiner's excellent papers, Ward and Smith chart the course of his public life.

MUTUAL HOSTAGES

CANADIANS AND JAPANESE DURING THE SECOND WORLD WAR

Patricia E. Roy, J. L. Granatstein, Masako Iino, and Hiroko Takamura

A team of historians, two Canadian and two Japanese, offers the most detailed account yet to emerge of the fate of the issei and nissei and of the Canadian POWs, missionaries, and civilians in Japan.
Cloth $24.95

OLD MAN ONTARIO

LESLIE M. FROST

Roger Graham

The life and career of Leslie Frost, Ontario premier from 1949 to 1961, and one of the great consolidators of the Ontario Tory dynasty. (Ontario Historical Studies Series)
Cloth $35.00

THE POLITICS OF PUBLIC SPENDING IN CANADA

Donald J. Savoie

'Savoie has written one of two or three most important books in the last decade for those who wish to understand how Ottawa works.' Jeffrey Simpson, Globe and Mail

'There is a new book out on how Ottawa has worked. It should become a classic. It illuminates our chief dilemmas ... a ranging analysis of cause and effect in spending ... In time Savoie's book will provide texts for innumerable sermons to the nation from editorialists, academics, and CEOs.'
Douglas Fisher, Southam News

Cloth $45.00, paper $19.95

Macdonald Commission Research Studies

STATE, SOCIETY, AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF CANADIAN FEDERALISM

Richard Simeon and Ian Robinson

From Charlottetown in 1864 to Meech Lake today, the debate on Canadian federalism goes on. To explain the forces that have shaped Canadian federalism, the authors have developed a comprehensive theoretical framework that integrates the roles of economic and social forces, political institutions, and political culture.

Volume I

THE NEW GEOPOLITICS OF MINERALS

Canada and International Resource Trade

DAVID G. HAGLUND, ed.

This is the first book to focus on the Canadian minerals trade and Canada's changing status as a resource exporter and importer. The contributors explore the current climate regarding minerals and their relevance to national and international security and identify particular Canadian interests which are exposed to the effects of new developments in the geopolitics of minerals. $30.00

Volume II

CANADIAN OCEANS POLICY

National Strategies and the New Law of the Sea

DONALD MCRAE AND GORDON MUNRO,eds.

This multidisciplinary book discusses the nature and adequacy of Canada's ocean management policies and practices following the 1982 Convention of the Law of the Sea. Written by lawyers, political scientists, economists, fisheries scientists, and diplomats, the essays shed new light on how oceans issues are regulated and managed by an important coastal state and on the progressive development of an international oceans regime. hc $39.95, pb $22.95

Volume III

THE INTERNATIONAL POLITICS OF AGRICULTURAL TRADE

Canadian-American Relations in a Global Agricultural Context

THEODORE H. COHN

A timely contribution to the debate about the worldwide agricultural crisis, this is the first major examination of Canadian-American agricultural trading relations from the perspective of international politics. The book covers the period from the 1950s to the late 1980s and focuses on third-country issues affecting U.S.-Canadian relations, including international pricing, surplus disposal, and export subsidies and credits. The author also includes a discussion of bilateral trade barriers and the recent free trade agreement. $36.95

THE GREAT TERROR

A Reassessment

Robert Conquest

The Great Terror of 1936-38, like any other historical phenomenon, had its roots in the past. It was a means of enforcing violent change upon the Soviet society. Still, it could not have been launched except against the extraordinarily idiosyncratic background of Bolshevik rule.

THE STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY

Aspects of Anglo-American Relations in the 1920s

edited by B.J.C. McKercher

The diplomatic, economic, and naval gains made by the U.S. at British expense during the Great War were not necessarily permanent. While the Americans sought to build on those gains in the 1920s, the British resisted; a struggle for supremacy ensued. This collection throws light on a crucial period in the histories of both British and American foreign policy and the history of twentieth century international affairs.

THE LAW OF NATIONS AND THE NEW WORLD

L.C Green and Olive P. Dickason

The issue of whether aboriginal rights enshrined in the Canadian Constitution preserve the sovereignty and right of self-government possessed by Amerindians before the age of European discovery and colonial expansion is examined from two very different points of view.

SCHOOL LAW UNDER THE CHARTER OF RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

by E.L. and M.A. Hurlbert

The subject matter of this book relates to current legal concerns of school teachers, administrators, trustees, and graduate students in educational administration. These concerns emanate from the uncertainty, confusion, and misunderstanding being generated through the media as the new Charter of Rights and Freedoms impacts on the delivery of public education in Canada.
