du Secrétaire-trésorier

A nos réunions de mai à Halifax, on s'est plaint, officiellement ou non, du retard du "Bulletin". Nous sommes à nouveau en retard et nous nous en excusons.

Au cours des vacances d'été, j'ai pu approfondir à loisir mes connaissances dans les secteurs les plus importants des besoins et rapports de l'Association. Le plus évident de ces derniers est évidemment notre lien avec La Société. Nous avons tenu des réunions et effectué nombre d'appels téléphoniques tout au cours de l'été afin d'améliorer le dialogue avec l'association-soeur. Après de longues discussions sur le style et la forme du "Bulletin", j'ai réussi en août à négocier certaines modifications au "Bulletin", à la satisfaction, semble-t-il, de la Société. J'ai tenu compte, évidemment, des suggestions des membres de l'ACSP, des termes du Protocole et de la latitude qui m'avait été allouée. Malheureusement, au cours des semaines subséquentes, la Société a été confrontée à des délais administratifs et à des mutations de personnel qu'elle ne pouvait éviter. Malgré ces efforts, et notre accord à retarder la publication d'automne, la Société n'a pu rencontrer l'échéance fixée à la fin-octobre. Nous avons dû décider cette fois-ci de mettre sous presse sans attendre leur contribution. Toutefois, la prochaine édition d'hiver respectera les limites fixées et sera, nous l'espérons, à la satisfaction des membres de nos deux associations. J'aimerais évidemment connaître, d'ici les prochains mois, vos suggestions sur les thèmes, articles, etc... qui vous paraîtront appropriés à notre brochure. J'ai moi-même certaines idées, (par exemple, une rubrique visant à échanger des idées concernant les intérêts immédiats de notre association.) mais j'en ferai part quand j'aurai acquis plus d'expérience comme secrétaire-trésorier.

A mon avis, une de nos principales préoccupations réside dans les coupures gouvernementales des subventions à la recherche. Au cours de mes conversations avec les représentants d'Ottawa, les mesures d'austérité demeurent une menace imminente. Les bureaucrates nous indiquent aussi clairement que le gouvernement tient de plus en plus à dire son mot sur les subventions "stratégiques" accordées à la communauté académique. Il pourrait en résulter des conséquences inquiétantes pour les subventions à la recherche, surtout celles qui ne relèvent pas du domaine "stratégique".

J'accueillerai vos commentaires à ce sujet (qu'ils soient négatifs ou positifs), ce qui me permettra d'établir la position de notre association.

Le Secrétaire-trésorier est à votre disposition. Sa tâche consiste à assurer la bonne marche de l'administration de l'Association. Heureusement, il peut avoir recours à l'expérience de son administratrice, Joan Pond, de sa secrétaire, Shelley Berezin (qui apporte sa contribution trois jours par semaine) et de Rachel Desjardins (qui vient deux jours par semaine mettre à jour les comptes et travailler au traitement des mots).

From The Desk of the Secretary-Treasurer

During our May meetings at Halifax criticisms were voiced, both formally and informally, concerning the lateness of "The Bulletin". It is late again and I do think that I owe you an apology.

During the summer holidays I took the opportunity the hiatus afforded me to familiarize myself with the most strategic areas of the Association's business and relationships. The most obvious in the latter category is of course our relationship with La Société. Meetings were held and telephone calls made throughout the summer to facilitate better communications with our sister association. They had long objected to the format and style of "The Bulletin", so, keeping in mind the CPSSA members' feelings about "The Bulletin", the terms of the Protocol, and the discretion given to me, I was successful by August in negotiating certain changes in "The Bulletin" to the apparent satisfaction of La Société. Unfortunately in the ensuing weeks La Société had administrative delays and staff turnovers beyond its control. Despite a valiant effort on their part, and our willingness to delay the Fall publication, La Société was unable to meet our absolute deadline of end-October. Regrettably we have had to decide to publish without their contribution for this time. However, the forthcoming Winter issue will be on time and will, we hope, be to the satisfaction of the members of both associations. In the forthcoming months I definitely would like to hear from you all concerning ideas, articles etc. which you deem suitable in our newsletter. I have some ideas of my own (a column, for example called "On the Front Burner" in which we could exchange ideas about subjects of immediate concern to the community,) but these will materialize as I become more comfortable with my position as Secretary-Treasurer.

As I see it, one of our most crucial areas of concern relates to the government cutbacks on research funding. The dark clouds of a further impending austerity are always present in my conversations with members of official Ottawa. Coupled with this is the clear signal given by bureaucratic sources that the government wishes to become more and more involved in strategic grants to the academic community. The implications this has for research funding, particularly for those areas not deemed to be "strategic", are ominous. If you have any views on this matter, both destructive and constructive- I would certainly like to hear from you all as I help to prepare our Association's position on this matter.

The Secretary-Treasurer is your servant. He is here to facilitate the smooth-running of the Association's administrative affairs. I am ably assisted in this endeavour by the Administrator, Joan Pond, by our secretary, Shelley Berezin, who works three days a week and by Rachel Desjardins, who comes in 2 days a week to help with the accounts and with word-processing.

EXCHANGES?

Departments of Political Science or interested faculty teaching at Canadian universities are invited to use a column that "The Bulletin" proposes to introduce to make contact with a department or individual who might wish to become involved in an academic exchange. The "Bulletin"'s function would simply be to act as a clearinghouse to put people in touch with each other. We depend on your creativity to decide how to advertise and look forward to hearing from you. Write to Secretary-Treasurer Vince Wilson at the CPSA Secretariat (address below).

President Stairs, writing to the Chairpersons to encourage this programme refers to exchanges as "means of giving new intellectual stimulus both to the participants and to their departmental hosts." He stresses the point that such arrangements could be "especially telling at a time when recruitment has fallen off and the infusion of 'new blood' has in consequence become more difficult."

When filled.

The members of APPSA received the shocking and saddening news this past summer that Larry Collins drowned while on a vacation at his parent's home in Indiana. The executive of APPSA, on behalf of its membership, wish to express our deep sense of loss. Larry's energy and initiative were important to our association from its beginnings and he twice served as its president. Important as these contributions were, we will remember Larry more for his personal qualities. He was a life-enhancer with a very strong sense of irreverent humour and fun who at the same time cared strongly about colleagues, students and family and felt a deep sense of involvement in a number of serious issues. In short, he was one of those people, too infrequently met in our profession, who was serious about his work but who did not make the mistake of taking himself too seriously.

According to a longstanding tradition of the Association, the person who serves as Vice-chair of one year's Programme Committee becomes the Chairperson of the following year. We wish to draw to your attention that Prof. Ken Carty (UBC) will be Chairperson of the 1983 Programme Committee. He invites you to contact him at if you have any suggestions for special sessions or for persons who might serve in the various posts on his committee.

ECHANGES?

Les départements de Sciences politiques, ou toute autre faculté d'universités canadiennes, sont invités à se servir d'une rubrique que l'on va créer dans le "Bulletin". La rubrique servirait à encourager les rapports entre départements ou individus qui désirent participer à des échanges universitaires. Son objectif serait d'aider les gens à prendre contact. Votre créativité fera le reste et nous attendons de vos nouvelles. Vous n'avez qu'à écrire au Secrétaire-trésorier, Vince Wilson, de l'ACSP (adresse ci-dessous).

Le président Stairs, dans sa lettre aux présidents pour encourager cette initiative, parle des échanges en ces termes: "Une manière de stimuler les rapports intellectuels entre les participants et leurs invités". Il insiste sur le fait que "les échanges seront particulièrement utiles au moment où le recrutement périclète et où l'infusion de "sang nouveau" s'avère difficile."

MINUTES / PROCES VERBAUX

The Association's Board of Directors met twice around the AGM. On May 26th the 1980/81 Board met for the last time. Present as observers were the successful 1981/82 candidates.

The meeting opened with two major pieces of business relating to the personnel of the Association. The appointment of Fred Fletcher (York) as Director of the Ontario Legislature Internships Programme (OLIP) was announced. The nomination of V. Seymour (Vince) Wilson (Carleton) as Secretary-Treasurer was moved. This latter nomination was carried forward to the AGM for approval.

The meeting established the 81/82 budget of the Association. As is to be expected in times of restraint the emphasis on the expenditure side was on ways in which to hold the line or to reduce costs in order to get the Association and Journal through to 1982. Holding the line through the current period would permit the proposed fee increase effective 1982 to fund the future rather than clean up the past. On the revenue side the budget reflected the more stable picture provided by the clearer fee year.

The Board created 3 major committees. Their membership is recorded here though, of course, the appointments were made subsequent to the meeting.

1. Standing Committee on Status of Women

(Chair): Janine Brodie, Queen's
Caroline Andrew, Ottawa
David Ravside, U of T

2. Standing Committee on Workshops

(Chair): Walter Young, U of Victoria
Aurey Doerr, SFU
Paul Tennant, UBC

The Executive was empowered to seek an individual to carry forward German Workshop proposals.

3. Standing Committee on Strategic Grants

(Chair): V. Seymour Wilson, Carleton
Michael Atkinson, McMaster
Alan C. Cairns, UBC

1. The Committee on the Status of Women will report to the 1982 AGM. A preliminary report will go to the Fall 1981 Board meeting.

2. The Standing Committee on Workshops will act to receive and weigh workshop proposals as they come in and recommend the appointment of Directors and selection committees.

3. The following motion established the Strategic Grants Committee and set out its terms of reference:

MOTION: CARRIED

That the CPSA expresses its concern about the increased weight the SSHRC has been giving to Strategic Grants;

That it strongly reaffirms the central importance of independent research by independent scholars in the development of the social sciences and humanities in Canada;

That it instructs the committee the CPSA will be striking on strategic grants to take these concerns into the deliberations of the Federation.

The Strategic Grants motion really rose out of a most interesting report on the future of the Association done for the Board by Prof. Philip Resnick (UBC). The Board devoted a profitable period to the discussion of the many issues it raised. An effort to promote faculty exchanges within the Canadian University context, for example, is first reflected elsewhere in this "Bulletin". The report, received by Board motion which recommended the implementation of as many of its recommendations as possible over the next period, is available upon request from the CPSA office.

Because in order to deal with the future it is well to be clear about the past the Board moved to create a one-person Committee to Review Past Board Motions (Susan McCorquodale) and to establish a list of "items arising" as a formal part of future Board Minutes.

ECPP Workshop

Because Prof. Alex McLeod (UQAM) had to withdraw as director of the proposed 1982 workshop with The European Consortium for Political Research the composition of that joint committee had to be reworked as did the terms of reference. This question was referred to the next meeting of the Liaison Committee SQSP/CPSA.

The Board discussed the ongoing question of the Association's relationship with the SSFC for a long period. The discussion formed around the motion of withdrawal that had been tabled at the November 1980 meeting and resulted in the following motion's being passed for forwarding to the AGM of this year.

MOTION: CARRIED

That the Canadian Political Science Association withhold payment of membership fees to the Social Science Federation of Canada for fiscal 1982 and that the amount of such fees be maintained in a separate account pending the decision of the 1982 AGM.

The AGM was also given notice of the following motion to be voted on in 1982:

MOTION: CARRIED

That the CPSA withdraw from the Social Science Federation of Canada.

May 29

The first meeting of the new Board is by tradition largely informational. Its major item of business is the election of the Board's representative to the Executive Committee. Rianne Mahon was acclaimed to the post. The Board also received a progress report from the Executive on its efforts to fill the various committee posts, referred a question of the particular needs of the theory section to Programme Chairperson Fred Fletcher, welcomed incoming Journal Editors John Courtney and Duff Spafford and bid a fond farewell to outgoing Editors Kal Holsti and Don Blake. The Board also received M.V. Naidu to hear a preliminary report on his Canada-India Workshop and to congratulate him on an exciting venture.

The meeting ended on a warmly felt note of thanks to the extraordinary piece of work done by Herman Bakvis of Dalhousie University who had so successfully shepherded the Association through a maze of arrangements for the AGM period.

AGM

The Minutes of the AGM will, of course, appear in their entirety in "The Bulletin" that appears in late May but there are a few items that should be drawn to your attention at this point.

The meeting voted the proposed fee increase. In 1982 there will be for the first time only 4 possible levels of payment. The meeting expressed by Motion its wish that the first category be clearly defined as applying to "students, retired or unemployed persons". These memberships will cost $15. or $20. All other members will pay $40. (CPSA only, SQSP selement) or $45. (joint). (The Joint category has also been affected by an SQSP Board decision that members must buy the new review Politique ($3.) as part of the fee. This decision was taken after the CPSA's and will be reflected in the renewal forms.)

The meeting received the notice of motion of withdrawal from the SSFC, this motion to be dealt with at the 1982 AGM. It voted in support of the motion of withholding of SSFC fees but added a rider that these might be reinstated if the Executive determined that the situation had changed in such a way as to warrant this.

With the passing of the symbolic stein from President Walter Young to President Denis Stairs the meeting ended and a new Association year began.

CARLETON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Bruce Doern continues his hectic pace. Over the last year we have seen the following publications: Canadian Nuclear Policies (Montreal: IRPP, 1980) Co-edited with R.W. Morrison; Government Intervention and the Canadian Nuclear Industry (Montreal: IRPP, 1980); Rationalizing the Regulatory Decision Process (Economic Council of Canada, 1980); The Peripheral Nature of Scientific and Technological Controversy in Federal Policy Foundations (Science Council of Canada, 1981); and co-edited with Allan Tupper (Alberta) Public Corporations and Public Policy in Canada (Montreal: IRPP, 1981). Bruce has resigned his position as Director of the School of Public Administration and has returned to full-time teaching in the school.

Rianne Mahon is still being kept busy on her manuscript of Canada's industrial strategy. In the past year she has been manuscript editor and member of the editorial board of Studies in Political Economy and member of the Science Policy committee of the SSFC. This spring she agreed to serve as Board representative to the Executive Committee of the CPSA.

Vince Wilson, apart from recently becoming your Secretary-Treasurer, has published a book entitled Canadian Public Policy and Administration: Theory and Environment. Geoffrey Engholm has just completed a book-length manuscript on immigrant influences on policy formation in the Uganda Protectorate, 1900-1951. He has also recently completed two studies for Transport Canada dealing with the Thunder Bay Airport.

Geoffrey Weller has recently written a report with Dr. P. Ruderman entitled "A Study of Inuit Health and Health Services in the Keewatin Zone of the Northwest Territories", (Ottawa: Department of National Health and Welfare, 1981, 99 pages). He has also had two articles published one entitled "Local Government in the Canadian Provincial North" (Canadian Public Administration, Volume 24, Number 1, Spring 1981, pp. 44-72), the other entitled "The Determinants of Canadian Health Policy", (Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Volume 5, Number 3, Fall 1980, pp. 405-418). Two of Professor Weller's previous articles on health policy were reprinted in C. A. Mellicke and J. L. Storch, Perspectives on Canadian Health and Social Services Policy:

History and Emerging Trends, Ann Arbor: Health Administration Press, University of Michigan, 1980. Professor Weller also recently presented papers at meetings of the Political Studies Association of the United Kingdom, the Western Social Science Association and at Duke University.

Pradip Sarbadhikari has become an editor of WORLD POLICY. He is continuing work on book length manuscripts on Indian foreign policy and relations between Third World nations and the West.

Joseph Zboralski continues his research on Canadian-Polish relations.

In the past year the Department has had great success with a new first year course entitled "Law and Politics in Canada". The course is largely taught by members of the local legal community. The Department is also pleased to report that one of its students was awarded an Ontario Legislative Internship. As part of the Department's cooperative efforts with the University of Minnesota, Duluth, Dr. Doug Noro of the University of Minnesota, Duluth Staff, will be teaching a course on American Politics in the Fall term.

Regrettably, Dr. Engholm's proposals for the creation of a Centre for the Study of Decadence have been received with amazement and utter disbelief by those outside the Department. He states that constructive suggestions, or even decadent ones, concerning how he might enhance his credibility would be welcome.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER UNIVERSITY

The Department of Political Science of St. Francis Xavier University, Nova Scotia, regrets to report the accidental death by drowning of Dr. Larry Collins. This occurred on July 17, 1981, at the home of his parents in Indiana. Dr. Collins received his B.A. (1966) and M.A. (1968) degrees from San Jose State University, California. In 1973 he received his doctorate from Carleton University. As a member of the Canadian academic community, he was active in both the Atlantic Provinces Political Science Association as its president (two terms) and the Canadian Political Science Association (and had been a member of the Board). Widely-known, and much-liked, his death is a great loss to his students, colleagues and friends. See APPSA TRIBUTE, p. 1.

PROGRAMME COMMITTEE 1982/ COMITE DE PROGRAMME

CPSA 1982 ANNUAL MEETING/
CONGRES ANNUEL DE L'ACSP, 1982

Members of the Association were invited in the September Journal and by poster to the departments to submit proposals for papers to be presented at the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Political Science Association to be held at the University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Ontario, June 7, 8, and 9, 1982.

The deadline for proposals is Nov. 2, 1981. The September Journal having appeared late we would invite anyone having a new paper proposal to contact the appropriate section head immediately by telephone. The Committee will extend the deadline as far as they are able in these special circumstances.

L'Association a invité, par moyen de La Revue de septembre et des fiches envoyées aux départements, à ses membres à soumettre des sujets de communications à présenter lors du Congrès annuel de 1982 de l'Association canadienne de science politique qui aura lieu à l'Université d'Ottawa, Ottawa, Ontario, le 7, 8, 9 juin, 1982. La date limite a été le 2 novembre.

A cause de la parution tardive de la Revue de septembre il est encore temps de proposer des thèmes de communications en téléphonant à la personne en charge de la section. Vues les circonstances le comité a tenu à prolonger la date limite.

UNIVERSITY OF REGINA CONFERENCE

BUILDING

THE CO-OPERATIVE COMMONWEALTH:

The

Democratic Socialist Tradition in Canada

June 23-25, 1983

To mark the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the Regina Manifesto, a conference on the history of the CCF/NDP in Canada will be held June 23-25, 1983 in Regina, Saskatchewan.

It is the hope of the Planning Committee that the conference will attract interested persons in the academic community, as well as those who participate in the political party, in unions and in cooperatives.

Papers are invited from a variety of disciplines — political science, economics, sociology, etc., as well as from history, and should reflect on the democratic socialist tradition in Canada and on the interpretation of that tradition. Outlines should briefly cover research done, basic content of the paper as well as method of presentation. Each paper will be allotted 25 minutes. All sessions at the conference are to be plenary.

Outlines should be submitted by January 31, 1982 to:

FOUNDATIONS OF POLITICAL THEORY GROUP panels at the 1982 Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association in Denver

Again in 1982 the attempt will be made to put together a program that is representative of several ongoing areas of inquiry relating to the Foundations Group's perennial concerns, and thus to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and criticism both within and across these areas of inquiry. Rather than establish a priori the areas to be included, suggestions are first being invited for panels, papers, roundtables, and workshops.

The Foundations Group has, since its inception, been concerned very broadly with those problems at the roots of political inquiry which bear directly upon research in both political philosophy and empirical political science, as well as upon the application of theory to practice. This broad framework includes, among other things, problems in epistemology, ontology, methodology, ethics, logic, and rhetoric, and extends also to the sociology, politics, and psychology of political and social inquiry. All schools, parties, and styles of inquiry into these problems are welcome.

Anyone having suggestions and proposals for the 1982 Foundations of Political Theory program should contact Fred Eidin, Department of Political Studies, University of Guelph, Ontario, Canada N1G 2W1, Telephone (519) 824-4120, ext. 2460.

DUKE UNIVERSITY
Department of Political Science

The Legislative Specialists Committee of the International Political Science Association will sponsor two panels at the XIth World Congress, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, August 9-14, 1982, on "Legislatures and Regime Support in Democratic and Authoritarian Political Systems." The generation and maintenance of citizen support for the political regimes of which they are a part are fundamental concerns of leaders of both democratic and authoritarian political systems. They rely on a mixture of coercion and voluntarism to secure compliance with their authoritative edicts. However, the assumption is that the mix employed is different with leaders of democracies less often relying on extensive use of coercive measures. It further is assumed that in both types of systems, under certain conditions, the actions of legislative bodies can facilitate voluntary compliance or make it more difficult to achieve. Thus, they either can contribute to the enhancement or erosion of public support for political regimes and their incumbent authorities.

The Legislative Specialists Committee invites interested scholars to participate in the two panels by preparing papers pertinent to the legislative role in facilitating or eroding public support for democratic and authoritarian regimes. An outline of the proposed paper should be sent to the Committee's Chairman, Professor Allan Kornberg, Department of Political Science, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, U.S.A., 27706.

Proposals should provide as much detail as possible and it should be noted that in addition to the quality of the proposal the need for geographic representativeness on the panels also will be a criterion for selection.

The Social Science Federation of Canada recently organised a meeting learned journals. It was held at Toronto on October 29 and 30 past. Present were representatives of a large number of the association journal teams, and of the SSHRC committee which is looking at alternative forms of scholarly communication. Present for the CPSA were Paul Fox, former CJPS Co-Editor, and Fred Fletcher member of the CPSA's Stairs Committee on scholarly communication. Reports are that the meeting was a most worthwhile one. More on this subject in the Winter issue.

TRAVEL GRANTS/

TRAVEL
GRANTS TO LEARNED SOCIETIES'
MEETINGS CPSA - Annual General Meeting, Ottawa University Ottawa, June 7, 8, 9, 1982

The Canadian Political Science Association receives a travel grant through the Social Science Federation of Canada to assist members to come to the annual meeting from distant places. These funds are particularly designed to help participating younger members or those whose university may be unable to help them defray their costs. They are all apportioned before the meetings take place.

The assumption remains that established assistant, associate, and full professors who are participating as paper givers, discussants, or chairpersons will be subsidized by their own universities. At the date of the final allocation of grants (approximately May 1 of each year) any funds not used by participants will be allocated to junior non-participating members of the Association. We stress this point to planners of the programme who must inform participants of these deadlines.

To be considered, requests for travel funds must reach the Secretary-Treasurer, V. Seymour Wilson, Canadian Political Science Association, Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario, K1S 5B6, by APRIL 15 1982.

Your letter of application must state:

1. That you have approached your own institution for funds
2. The amount of any partial grants you expect to receive from other sources than the CPSA
3. Your academic rank
4. Whether or not you will be participating in the programme

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

The University of Waterloo Library announces the publication of Aspects of Negotiations between States: A Select Bibliography, the sixth issue in their series Bibliography.

Negotiations between sovereign states has always been an essential demand in relations between states. In the last decade, more attention was given to the negotiation process by academics, researchers and politicians. This bibliography is an attempt to bring various aspects of the negotiation process under bibliographic control. This, we hope will facilitate more useful research and will be of use to students, researchers and laymen.

The bibliography covers mainly American sources and the main language of coverage is English. It is quite comprehensive in its coverage of monographs and scholarly journals, but selective in covering government sources.

Copies of Bibliography No. 6 are available at a cost of $10.00 per copy. Orders should be sent to:

ANNOUNCEMENT

Prof. Robert Jackson, General Editor of the Canadian Controversies Series in Political and Social Sciences, invites scholars to send manuscripts or proposals for books, which might contribute to a significant expansion of the Series.

The proposed volumes should develop basic themes or problems of Canadian life. They should take a strong personal viewpoint and be disciplined by a serious scholarly approach, without technical language or jargon that would inhibit general readers.

The following books already published in the Series are examples of the type of manuscripts that are being sought: The Canadian Legislative System, Robert J. Jackson and M. M. Atkinson; Unfulfilled Union: Canadian Federalism and National Unity, G. Stevenson; Canada as an International Actor, P.V. Lyon and B. W. Tomlin; Political Participation in Canada, W. Mishler; The Canadian Senate, A Lobby from Within, Colin Campbell; The Prime Minister in Canadian Government and Politics, R. M. Punnett; Nationalism, Self-Determination and the Quebec Question, D. Cameron.

Anyone interested in contributing to the Series or having questions about it, please write to Prof. Jackson, Department of Political Science, Carleton University, Ottawa, K1S 5R6

ANNONCE

Alain G. Gagnon (sous la direction de). Les Opérations Dignité: naissance d'un mouvement social dans l'Est du Québec (Ottawa: Université Carleton, 1981) 262 pages.

Les Opérations Dignité ont déjà dix ans et, assez curieusement, elles demeurent toujours méconnues par une majeure partie de la population canadienne.

Les Opérations Dignité, opération de prise en charge par les citoyens eux-mêmes de leurs propres affaires, ont eu des répercussions à une assez grande échelle. Quelques exemples suffiront pour illustrer notre propos. La coopérative des ressources du Transcontinental (Cart), le JAL, les sociétés d'exploitation des ressources (SER), ainsi que plusieurs autres formes d'initiatives populaires sont tous des dérivés des Opérations Dignité.

Le mérite de ce volume est de rassembler des études qui, pour la majorité, sont encore inédites et qui offrent une image composée des Opérations Dignité. Cette contribution facilite aussi la compréhension du quand, du comment et du pourquoi des mouvements populaires.

Plusieurs questions d'importance sont abordées. Entre autres, pourquoi les Opérations Dignité sont apparues exclusivement dans le Bas Saint-Laurent et la Gaspésie? Qu'est-ce qui fait de cette région un lieu plus propice que les autres régions du Québec en ce qui concerne

INDEMNITE DE DEPLACEMENT POUR
LES CONFERENCES DES SOCIETES
SAVANTES ACSP

- Réunion annuelle générale,
Université d'Ottawa, Ottawa, 7, 8, 9
juin 1982

L'Association canadienne de Science politique reçoit des fonds de la Fédération canadienne des Sciences sociales pour couvrir les frais de déplacement des membres résidant loin du lieu de la conférence. Ces allocations sont plus particulièrement destinées aux membres les plus jeunes ainsi qu'à ceux dont l'Université ne peut indemniser le déplacement. Les bénéficiaires seront tous désignés avant la réunion.

On a tout lieu de croire que les professeurs qui participeront, soit comme conférenciers, rapporteurs ou président, seront indemnisés par leur Université. Vers le 1er mai de chaque année, lors de l'allocation définitive des fonds, tout argent non utilisé sera alloué aux jeunes membres de l'Association qui ne participeront pas. Nous soulignons ce point aux organisateurs du programme qui doivent aviser les participants de la date limite.

Prière d'adresser toute demande d'allocation à V. Seymour Wilson, Secrétaire-trésorier, Association canadienne de Science politique, Carleton University, Ottawa (Ontario) K1S 5B6, avant le 15 avril 1982.

Votre lettre de demande doit mentionner:

1. Que vous avez sollicité une allocation de votre Université;
2. Le montant de toute allocation que vous pensez recevoir par ailleurs;
3. Votre titre académique;
4. Si vous allez participer activement à la conférence (présentation d'une communication ...).
