FROM THE CONSTITUTION Article VIII: Elections. 8.1 The nominating committee shall consist of the President (non-voting) and three members of the Association who are not members of the Board of Directors, elected annually. (Replacement, when necessary shall be designated by the President.) 8.2 The Committee shall call for nominations, duly signed by two members of the Association, for the elected members of the Board of Directors and the members of the Nomination Committee from the membership of the Association. a) by inserting in the September issue of the Canadian Journal of Political Science a notice requesting nominations and b) by circulating before September 30 a letter requesting nominations through the chairmen of departments of Political Science. 8.3 From the nominations received the committee shall prepare a selection of names for all offices subject to election. Before making the selection, the committee, at its own discretion, may consult with other members of the Association. 8.4 If, by January 15, the committee has received no nominations for the office of President-Elect, and if necessary, for the Secretary-Treasurer and/or for the Secretary-Treasurer-Elect, and/or if it has received insufficient nominations for the Nominating Committee or members-at-large on the Board of Directors, the committee shall be empowered to make nominations to ensure candidates for all offices. 8.5 If, by January 15, the nominations for members-at-large on the Board of Directors do not include at least one name from each of: the Atlantic Provinces, Quebec, Ontario, the Prairie Provinces, and British Columbia, the committee shall, in the case of the unrepresented regions, again request nominations through the chairmen of the Departments of Political Science.	DE LA CONSTITUTION Article VIII: Elections 8.1 Le Comité de nomination, sera composé du président (sans droit de vote) et de trois membres de l'Association non membre du Bureau de direction et qui seront élus annuellement. (Le cas échéant, le président devra désigner des remplaçants.) 8.2 Le comité signifiera aux membres de l'Association la recevabilité des candidatures, dûment signé par deux membres, aux postes de membres élus du Bureau de direction et du comité de nomination; a) en publiant dans le numéro de septembre de la Revue canadienne de Science politique un avis de recevabilité des candidatures; et b) en faisant circuler avant le 30 septembre, par l'entremise des chefs de départements de science politique, un avis de recevabilité des candidatures. 8.3 A même la liste des candidatures reçues, le Comité établit la liste des candidatures à tous les postes portant élection. 8.4 Si, le 15 janvier, le Comité n'a pas reçu de candidature aux postes de président-désigné, et s'il y a lieu, au poste de secrétaire-trésorier et/ou de secrétaire-trésorier-désigné, et/ou s'il n'a pas reçu suffisamment de candidatures pour le Comité des candidatures et des représentants des membres en général au Bureau de direction, le Comité a le pouvoir de présenter des candidatures de sorte qu'il y ait des candidats à tous les postes. 8.5 Si, au 15 janvier, les nominations des conseillers ne comprennent pas au moins un nom de chacune des régions suivantes, soit les provinces de l'Atlantique, le Québec, l'Ontario, les provinces de l'Ouest et la Colombie Britannique, le Comité devra, dans le cas des régions non représentées, faire une nouvelle demande de candidatures par l'entremise des chefs de départements de science politique.
